

Rodney LenthallNon-Executive Chairman, Shipowners P&I Association (Luxemburg)

Rodney has had a lifetime career in the shipping industry having initially been at sea with the British & Commonwealth Group followed by command of vessels within the Ocean Inchcape fleet in the North Sea. On coming ashore, he subsequently became chief executive of O.I.L. Ltd, chairman of Cory Towage Ltd, a director of the parent company, Ocean Group PLC. On leaving Ocean Group, he has been involved in executive, non-executive, and private equity positions in maritime related businesses, including: Seacor Smit Inc., USA; Victor Lenac Shipyard, Croatia; Globe Wireless Inc., USA; The Standard & I Club; Viking Supply Ships, Norway; ASCO plc; and The Port of London Authority.

He has chaired the Offshore section of the GCBS, and the International Supply Vessel Association.

Rodney Lenthall is non-executive, and past Chairman, of Shipowners P&I Association, Luxembourg; a member of the Company of Master Mariners; founder member and fellow of the Nautical Institute; a liveryman of the Company of Shipwrights; and Chairman of Governors of The London Nautical School.