Wednesday 16 June 2021

Digital – Hopin online platform

Registration link: <https://hopin.com/events/greek-british-shipping-forum-2021>

The first digital Greek British Shipping Forum will explore how Maritime London members are supporting the shipping industry, as it moves to comprehend, monitor and utilise technology to ensure compliance with the IMO GHG Emissions regulations and international sanctions regimes.

12:00 BST / 14:00 (Greece EEST)

Welcome Addresses:

Kate Smith CMG, British Ambassador
Jos Standerwick, Chief Executive, Maritime London

Session 1: SANCTIONS

Focus: Shipping's role in the global supply chain means it is uniquely exposed to onerous and far-reaching sanctions measures. This session will provide an overview of the contemporary sanctions environment and explore how UK firms are supporting their clients through this increasingly complex landscape using awareness and technology to ensure compliance.

Panelists:

Britt Pickering, Claims and Legal Director, The Shipowners' Club (Co-moderator)
Camilla Slater, Head of Legal, The Shipowners' Club (Co-moderator)
Daniel Martin, Partner, HFW
Neil Roberts, Head of Marine & Aviation, Lloyd's Market Association (LMA)
Simon Ring, Head of Maritime Trade Technologies & ESG at Pole Star

13:15 (BST) / 15:15 (EEST)

Session 2: DECARBONISATION

Focus: With the June IMO MEPC, 76 amendments due to come into force from 2023 onwards mandating efficiency improvements for vessels over 400GT, shipowners do not have long to understand and implement the necessary changes to their fleets to ensure compliance. The panel will explore the emerging regulatory and non-regulatory incentives for emissions cuts in shipping, consider ship efficiency regulations, emissions trading, industry incentives, the forthcoming transition to alternative fuels and the knock on effects on markets, party relationships and contracts.

Panelists:

Andrew McKeran, Business Director – Maritime Performance Services, Lloyd's Register
(Moderator & Speaker)

Rachel Hoyland, Senior Associate, Hill Dickinson
